

A Kappella Munda

JUNE 2010

This Issue

- Felicity's 50th Birthday Party
- AKM 16th Birthday Party

FELICITY'S 50TH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Photos by Maggie Rutherford
Article by Jan Rogers

The sleepy little village of Darlington was jolted awake recently when Felicity decided to celebrate her 50th birthday. To keep the party in tune with her and Steven's upcoming holiday in France, the charming old Darlington hall was transformed for the night when the scene was set to become "Café de la Felicite" with all manner of French citizenry gathering for the occasion. The café was filled with music, wine and dancing.

Bonhomie was in the air. Steven and Sarah featured large, with the height of Sarah's heels astounding everyone. Length of leg was pretty good too. (We should not have been surprised by the height of Sarah's heels. She is, after all, Felicity's daughter!) The choir sang a special "Felicity birthday song" with words by Marcia. I'm sure family, friends, and choir friends all enjoyed helping Felicity make it her special day.

AKM 16TH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Article and photographs by Maggi Rutherford

Oh, how the years keep passing.

Saturday 12th June saw AKM celebrating our 16th birthday at Falls Farm and there we were all trying to look "Sweet Sixteen" in our fifties style clothes. As usual, there was a lot of hilarity and cheers each time someone else came dressed in costume.

One chick with pink hair, a black and pink outfit and a "pink" husband along with her, well someone had to look after the pink poodle she also brought (on her skirt)!! Actually, Michael and Celia both looked good.

Mike wore a pink zoot suit, reminiscent of the days of teddy boys, mods and rockers. Digby was, I think, a Beatnik of sorts, with a strange looking beard and tight leather pants.

Some people brought along photos of themselves taken around the time. John brought his wedding album. He was married in 1955 and his bride was gorgeous. Even he was kinda cute then. He and Moira danced the evening away. The jiving they did was incredible. Where they got the stamina I don't know. He was throwing Moira all over the place. They were both very impressive.

After some Fifties Style food, we all gathered round and sang a little, well a lot. We are a choir after all and we love a good sing song. We even had an accompaniment on the spoons.

Many thanks once more to Marcia and all her helpers for organising another great party night.

